2. The Captains, or in the case of most junior teams, the team managers, are responsible at all times for ensuring that play is conducted within the Spirit of Cricket as well as within the Laws.
3. Players and Team Officials must at all times accept the Umpire's decision. Players must not show dissent at the Umpire's decision or react in a provocative or disapproving manner towards an Umpire at any time.

7. Clubs must take adequate steps to ensure the good behaviour of their members and supporters towards players and Umpires.

Spirit of Cricket

Cricket is a game that owes much of its unique appeal to the fact that it should be played not only within its Laws, but also within the Spirit of the Game. Any action that is seen to abuse this spirit causes injury to the game itself. The major responsibility for ensuring the spirit of fair play rests with the Captains.

1. There are two Laws that place the responsibility for the team's conduct firmly on the Captain.

Responsibility of Captains

The Captains are responsible at all times for ensuring that play is conducted within the Spirit of the Game as well as within the Laws.

Player's Conduct

In the event of any Player failing to comply with the instructions of an Umpire, criticising his decision by word or action, showing dissent, or generally behaving in a manner which might bring the game into disrepute, the Umpire concerned shall in the first place report the matter to the other Umpire and to the Player's Captain, requesting the latter to take action.

2. Fair and Unfair Play

According to the Laws the Umpires are the sole judges of fair and unfair play. The Umpires may intervene at any time, and it is the responsibility of the Captain to take action where required.

3. The Umpires are authorised to intervene in cases of:

- a) Time wasting;
- b) Damaging the pitch;
- c) Dangerous or unfair bowling;
- d) Tampering with the ball; or
- e) Any other action that they consider to be unfair.

4. The Spirit of the Game involves RESPECT for:

- a) Your opponents;
- b) Your own Captain and team;
- c) The role of the Umpires; and
- d) The game's traditional values.

5. It is against the Spirit of the Game:

- a) To dispute an Umpire's decision by word, action or gesture;
- b) To direct abusive language towards an opponent or Umpire; or
- c) To indulge in cheating or any sharp practice, for instance:
 - i. appeal knowing the batsman is not out;
 - ii. advance towards an Umpire in an aggressive manner when appealing; or
 - iii. seek to distract an opponent either verbally or by harassment with persistent clapping or unnecessary noise under the guise of enthusiasm and motivation of one's own side.

6. Violence

There is no place for any act of violence on the field of play.

7. Players

Captains and Umpires together set the tone for the conduct of a cricket match. Every player is expected to make an important contribution to this.
